

Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee (Committee) is to assist and advise the Board of directors in fulfilling its responsibilities to members of the Company on:

- a) Matters relating to the composition structure and composition of the Board.
- b) Matter relating to senior executive selection and performance.

The Committee shall have the right to seek any information it considers necessary to fulfil its duties, which includes the right to obtain appropriate external advice at the Company's expense.

This Charter shall be reviewed as part of the Corporate Governance annual review.

2. Composition

- a) Where practical, the Committee shall comprise at least three members, the majority of whom, when the composition allows, are independent non-executive Directors.
- b) The Chair of the Committee must be an independent non-executive Director.
- c) The Board may appoint additional non-executive Directors to the Committee or remove and replace members of the Committee by resolution.

3. The Company Secretary

- a) The Company Secretary or their nominee shall be the Secretary of the Committee and shall attend meetings of the Committee as required.
- b) The Secretary will be responsible for keeping the minutes of meetings of the Committee and circulating them to Committee members and to the other members of the Board.
- c) The Secretary shall distribute supporting papers for each meeting of the Committee as far in advance as possible.

4. Meetings

- a) The committee will hold meetings at least twice each year and additionally as it considers necessary
- b) Committee members will be invited to disclose conflicts of interest at the commencement of each meeting
- c) Meetings are called by the Secretary as directed by the Board or at the request of the Chair of the Committee.

- d) Where deemed appropriate by the Chair of the Committee, meetings and subsequent approvals may be held or concluded by way of a circular written resolution or conference call.
- e) A quorum shall comprise any two members of the Committee. In the absence of the Committee Chair or appointed delegate, the members shall elect one of their number as Chair.
- f) Decisions will be based on voting majority with the Chair having a casting vote.

5. Access

- a) Members of the Committee have rights of access to the books and records of the Company to enable them to discharge their duties as Committee members, except where the Board determines that such access would be averse to the Company's interests.
- b) The Committee may invite other people to attend as it sees fit and consult independent experts where the Committee considers this necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities. Any costs incurred resulting from the Committee consulting an independent expert will be borne by the Company.

6. Duties and Responsibilities

6.1 Executive Remuneration

- a) Review and approve the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures to enable the Company to attract and retain senior management, executives and Directors who can create value for shareholders.
- b) Review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the executive remuneration policy and other executive benefit programs.
- c) Ensure that remuneration policies fairly and responsibly reward executives having regard to the performance of the Company, the performance of the executive and prevailing remuneration expectations in the market.

6.2 Remuneration of Executive Directors and Senior Management

- a) Consider and make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration for each executive Director (including base pay, incentive payments, equity awards, retirement rights, service contracts) having regard to the executive remuneration policy.
- b) Review and approve the proposed remuneration (including incentive awards, equity awards and service contracts) for the direct reports of the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer.
- c) Termination payments to executive Directors or direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer/Chief Operating Officer/Managing Director. Termination payments to other departing executives should be reported to the Committee at its next meeting.

6.3 Performance Review

- a) The Committee will oversee an annual performance evaluation of the senior management team. This evaluation is based on specific criteria, including the performance of the individual against performance indicators and objectives, and the business performance of the Company, whether strategic objectives are being achieved and the development of management and personnel.
